The Wizard has already done that for you. Now you just have to write the message. With Wizard you can! Just take a look at the sample messages below and you'll see what I mean. WIZARD Description: Wizard is a powerful password editor for Windows. It allows you to create and manage passwords with ease. The program consists of three basic components: * Password List: you can save a list of frequently used passwords for later use. * Main Window: the program's central window shows you the current password. You can change it and add new ones. * Password Entry: the password input box. You can enter and edit passwords. The Password List allows you to save passwords you use often for later use. This way, you can speed up the password creation process. To start, just type a keyword in the main window. Wizard will save the password list in the specified directory. Next, choose from the available options what kind of password you would like to create and press Enter to create it. To change the existing password, type it in the password input box and press Enter. Wizard will prompt you for a new password. Press Enter to accept it, and press Enter again to create it. The Main Window shows you the current password. To change it, press Enter twice. The default password is "Password". You can also change it to another type of password. To edit the password, click on the password's name in the list and press Enter. Enter the new password and press Enter. The new password will be saved and displayed in the password list. The Password Entry box is the password 1d6a3396d6
