★ Collect and dress your Diva! You may encounter some odd choices while searching for all of the Divas. We know it can get a bit confusing, so here are some tips to help you get started! Loot your friends for Divas in the Global Market! If you have the chance to, go to the Global Market and find players that are willing to buy Divas for you! They can be anywhere from middle to high level, so don't worry about being outmatched. ● Hire

Bodyguards Any time you choose to go to the Global Market, you will be accompanied by two of our personal bodyguards. These two will help you purchase the Divas you need and will even duel on your behalf, so don't worry about exposing yourself. ♦ Divas:

Nightingale Medics are known to move fast, heal at a pace that some might consider reckless and to attack relentlessly.

Nightingale is the master of this and more, with both medicinal and deadly skills. She can either keep herself safe, or get in your way and knock your enemies back. Sigurd Tankers are hard to kill, but Sigurd is one of the best at making sure she dies first. Standing in front of him is an act of suicide, but Sigurd is no stranger to it and will be willing to give it a go. Android 21 If you can slay a giant, you can face a giant robot. If you can ride a huge robot, you can take on giant robots. And if you can use your giant robot, you can take on nearly any giant robot. But, the challenge lies in how to deal with the giant robots themselves. Once you are in the air, you will be able to spin around and shoot, so being able to maneuver and chase is key. ☆ Strategy and Tips: ● Pay attention to upgrades in the Diva menu! Every Diva has 2 branches in her upgrade tree; one for increasing her attack speed, and one for increasing her healing. ● Once you've unlocked a tank Diva, buying a Decimator is a waste! Never buy Decimators when the Diva is already tanky. Decimators become “direct damage attackers”, but as a tank, your job is to keep the enemies in front of you alive. ● Once you’ve

---

unlocked a healer, buying a Concussive Shot is a waste!

Hacksaw Ridge
Quentin Tarantino's WWII drama is a triumph of sheer storytelling Originally released 4 Edit 28 Sep The Italian-language film Hacksaw Ridge, about a conscientious objector (Andrew Garfield) who serves as a medic on a WWII battlefield, is the most accomplished "war movie" you will see this year. There are superb acting performances throughout by actors whose names you will probably not be familiar with, but this movie deserves more than the occasional nod on the end-of-year film lists. Tarantino's storytelling is just that good. Hacksaw Ridge, based on real-life World War II hero Desmond Doss, is his finest example to date of the well-told story with a meaty script. The plot is simple: Desmond Doss refuses to carry a gun or participate in a war. This leads to the war being changed, as he is sent instead to the front as a medic who cannot carry a gun. "Get out of here, you crazy mo-fo" shouts one soldier when Doss tries to bring a grenade to a wounded soldier. "Fire in the hole!" continues the soldier as the grenade is put in the hole. And Doss does fire a grenade, and it hits its target. The soldier shouts again, "Holy shit, I'm blind, I'm blind!" Doss, meanwhile, runs to pick up the wounded soldier, only to be shot by a Japanese sniper. The soldier's final words to him are "It's not over yet, Desmond." Desmond Doss is still in the war, and will continue to serve that way to the end. This is the kind of story that involves you,
