(Photo by Jason Doiy) Sure, we've told you before about how guys will change their facial hair for all manner of different reasons -- and that's all fine and good, for all the different reasons they'll change their facial hair. Except, as we all know, people with beards are awesome, and most of the time, they're just feeling happy and awesome and everything is going great for them. On Tuesday, we got to see a perfect example of that, and it was for a good cause. Atlanta Eagle Wing Fuzz Foundation is doing everything it can to keep the beards of Eagle Wing Fuzz Flight School and other LARPERS from going grey. For one thing, the non-profit organization (it's the third charity run by Lexi and her partner Jason Doiy) is raising money to get more beards dyed all sorts of colors like the purples, blues, oranges and greens that we've seen for the 501st Legion (every LARP faker's potential super hero alter-ego), but what they're primarily doing is taking care of the students' basic needs -- to give them food, shelter and a place to lay their heads at night -- while they're in the middle of getting colored up. And what's more, the beards are actually looking pretty awesome in 0cc13bf012
