I was about to write a letter to the editor of the "Daily Evening Bulletin" when I took into consideration some other material. I had a letter from William H. Meyers, of San Mateo, Cal. He wrote: "I am taking this opportunity to say that I read the articles of the "Common Cause Committee" in the "Worcester Telegram." I am acquainted with the late Norman Fiske, known to his friends by the name of the "Worcester Boy." I will answer the questions put up by the "Common Cause
