droidforums.net was founded in 2009 originally dedicated for the motorola droid, the first verizon android phone. we have since expanded our community to cover all android phones, android tablets, and android wearables. we discuss various topics including android help, android device reviews, android apps, phone accessories, android games and more. our ultimate goal is to be the internet's best and largest android forum. so we, being a unified species, have decided on a global solution to a divisive social problem. the problem being that a lot of people are disrespectful little bastards. we, having witnessed such heinous, thoughtless, and/or just plain offensive things occur on a daily basis, from gross ignorance about one's own background to the infamous popping of internet balloons, we've come to the conclusion that we need a solution. the solution we've devised is that every night, we're going to go online and spare even one moron an opportunity to cause ruiner. this will be a service offered by the new website urinatingthunder.com. was watching goodfellas last night and at the end of the movie, ray liotta says something about how most people wanted to do time in prison rather than getting killed. i didn't think the quote was very funny but when i looked it up it turns out that it actually makes sense. i've had a couple close calls with people who would sooner be arrested than shot. i remember a case from back in the day, a man and a woman arguing at a bar and the woman jumped him and the guy got mad and pulled out a gun. the woman called the cops before the man could fire. the man went to jail. the woman got a good scratch on her face and some bruises. she got some counselling about her violent tendencies. she didn't get charged with anything. the man got a 6 month sentence and the woman left town.
