How to get to Eschena, on our mountain bike Starting from the Rhine Valley we crossed through a flat area and started climbing towards the slopes of Eschena. We had already been walking for a good few hours when we finally reached the first hill. The initial slopes were not very steep and the most important thing when walking downhill is to keep a good grip. On this day this was not an easy task! However, the slope did not last for long and we reached the low lying village Eschena at the bottom. How to get to Eschena As we walked on the grassy paths we came across several buses and coach drivers. That's how you could be driven from Wernberg to Eschena in the opposite direction. In the same way you can also drive from Eschena back to Wernberg. So if you are a busy person you can drive instead of walking. As a matter of fact, if you are a motorcyclist, you can also
